Welcome to the IIC Congress Blog! We have a fantastic team of Digital Engagement Volunteers who will not only be moderating the Q&A discussions for each session, but will also be writing daily blog posts, so if you aren't able to engage in the live session discussions, or want more insight into the talks and speakers, be sure to check out the IIC Congress Blog for daily updates!

Blog posts will begin to post on the 2nd day of Congress, reviewing the previous day's sessions and events, so stay tuned!
