

Studies in Conservation

CONTENTS

Volume 31 (1986) – Volume 44 (1999)

Volume 31 No. 1 (February 1986)

- 1 The application of computer image processing techniques to artifact analysis as applied to the Shroud of Turin study Laurance R. Doyle, Jean J. Lorre & Eric B. Doyle
- 7 The use of Paraloid B-72 as an adhesive: its application for archaeological ceramics and other materials Stephen P. Koob
- 15 Cleaning daguerreotypes M. Susan Barger, A.P. Giri, William B. White & Thomas M. Edmondson
- 29 Application of low-pressure hydrogen plasma to the conservation of ancient iron artifacts J. Patscheider & S. Vepřek
- 38 A comparative study of resins for the consolidation of wooden objects S.M. Nakhla

Volume 31 No. 2 (May 1986)

- 49 Investigations into the reactions of plastic materials to environmental changes. Part I. The mechanics of the decay of paint films G.A. Berger & W.H. Russell
- 65 Microbiological degradation of lead-containing pigments in mural paintings Julia P. Petushkova & Natalie N. Lyalikova
- 70 The gamma-ray radiography of decorative plasterwork G.F. Alfrey & K. James
- 77 Application of infrared Fourier transform spectroscopy to problems in conservation. II. Photothermal beam deflection M.J.D. Low & P.G. Varlashkin
- 83 Fatty bloom on wood sculpture from Mali Ellen Pearlstein

Volume 31 No. 3 (August 1986)

- 97 Seeing through a yellow varnish: a compensating illumination system Raymond H. Lafontaine
- 103 On the stabilization of waterlogged oakwood with PEG. II. Designing a two-step treatment for multi-quality timbers Per Hoffmann
- 114 Wood coatings for display and storage cases Catherine E. Miles
- 125 Ultrasonic cleaning of ethnographic featherwork in aqueous solutions Gerry Barton & Sabine Weik
- 133 The chemical effects of hydrochloric acid and organic solvents on the surface of ivory L.J. Matienzo & C.E. Snow

Volume 31 No. 4 (November 1986)

- 145 Fluorescent assay of quinone, lichen and redwood dyestuffs Arie Wallert
- 156 The yellowing of thymol in the display of prints V. Daniels & B. Boyd

- 159 The yellowing of epoxy resin adhesives: report on high-intensity light aging Jane L. Down
- 171 Etude expérimentale de la stabilité dans l'obscurité de dix films cinématographiques couleurs B. Lavedrine, C. Trannois & F. Flieder
- 175 A simple tool for the electrolytic restoration of archaeological metallic objects with localized corrosion A. Aldaz, T. Espana, V. Montiel & M. Lopez-Segura
- 177 Plasticization and forming of misshapen birch-bark artifacts using solvent vapours Mark R. Gilberg
- 185 Construction of a Fudo-Myoo sculpture: an X-radiographic study Vanda Vitali, Jane Darcovich & Wendell Williams

Volume 32 No. 1 (February 1987)

- 1 The influence of varnishes on the appearance of paintings E. René de la Rie
- 14 Séchage par microondes pour la restauration de documents de papier en feuille ou en cahier Astrid-Christiane Brandt & André-Jean Berteaud
- 25 Conservation of corroded copper alloys: a comparison of new and traditional methods for removing chloride ions Ian Donald MacLeod
- 41 An adaptable compact modular bench R.M. Organ

Volume 32 No. 2 (May 1987)

- 49 A new approach to the reconstruction of two Anglo-Saxon glass claw beakers Penelope Fisher & Kirsty Norman
- 59 Insecticide analysis by gas chromatography in the stores of the Danish National Museum's ethnographic collection Jens Glastrup
- 65 The fading rates of some natural dyes Patricia Cox Crews
- 73 The washing of fragile iron artifacts David A. Scott & Nigel J. Seeley
- 77 Artists' prepared canvases from Winsor & Newton 1928-1951 Rosamond D. Harley
- 86 Application of flow-injection analysis for the determination of chloride extracted from corroded iron artifacts Wladyslaw Weker & Marek Trojanowicz

Volume 32 No. 3 (August 1987)

- 97 The technical examination of bidri ware Susan La Niece & Graham Martin
- 102 An investigation into the deterioration of painted Limoges enamel plaques c. 1470-1530 Rika Smith, Janice H. Carlson & Richard M. Newman
- 114 A study of the patina called scialbatura on imperial Roman marbles Marco Del Monte & Cristina Sabbioni
- 122 The conservation and restoration of mediaeval stained glass windows by 'gel-plating' Allan A. Mills

Volume 32 No. 4 (November 1987)

- 145 Alkali-soluble acrylic consolidants for plaster: a preliminary investigation Morgan W. Phillips 153 An investigation into the condition and conservation of the hull of the Mary Rose. Part I. Assessment of the hull timbers J.P. Squirrell & R.W. Clarke
- 163 An investigation of the chemical constituents of some renaissance plasters R.G. Newton & J.H. Sharp
- 176 Protection of museum textiles and leather against the dermestid beetle (Coleoptera, Dermestidae) by means of antifeedants G.A. Zaitseva
- 181 The potential long-term effects of gamma irradiation on paper Fiona J. Butterfield

Volume 33 No. 1 (February 1988)

- 1 Analysis of natural dyes in Indian historic textiles B.V. Kharbade & O.P. Agrawal
- 9 Polymer stabilizers. A survey with reference to possible applications in the conservation field E. René de la Rie
- 23 Nettoyage et dégagement des agrafes au Musée National de Céramique à Sèvres N. Lacoudre & M. Dubus
- 29 The ozone fading of traditional Japanese colorants Paul M. Whitmore & Glen R. Cass
- 41 Xeroradiography for paintings on canvas and wood Patrizia Magliano & Bruno Boesmi

Volume 33 No. 2 (May 1988)

- 53 Photochemical and thermal degradation of films of dammar resin E. René de la Rie
- 71 A study of gap-fillers for wooden objects D.W. Grattan & R.L. Barclay
- 87 A comparison of clear versus yellow ultraviolet filters in reducing fading of selected dyes Patricia Cox Crews
- 94 Composite casting of partially degraded iron artifacts D.A. Muncher
- 97 A novel method for conservation of copper-based artifacts M.C. Ganorkar, V. Pandit Rao, P. Gayathri & T.A. Sreenivasa Rao

Volume 33 No. 3 (August 1988)

- 109 An evaluation of Irganox 565 as a stabilizer for dammar picture varnishes E. René de la Rie
- 115 Technical examination and restoration of a ceremonial shield from the Solomon Islands E. Kenndler, F. Mairinger, W.P. Bauer, F. Rainer & K. Schmidt-Beiwl
- 126 A support system for a wall frieze from Teotihuacán, Mexico Lesley Bone
- 133 Relative humidity and the stress/strain response of canvas paintings: uniaxial measurements of naturally aged samples Gerry Hedley
- 149 Microbial calcification of gypsum-rock and sulfated marble Ronald M. Atlas, Ahad N. Chowdhury & K. Lal Gauri

- 154 Multispectral image processing of paintings A. Aldrovandi, D. Bertani, M. Cetica, M. Matteini, A. Moles, P. Poggi & P. Tiano

Volume 33 No. 4 (November 1988)

- 165 The restoration of a Greek vase: the Kyknos Krater Zdravko Barov
- 178 A further appraisal of the 'lime technique' for limestone consolidation, using a radioactive tracer Clifford Price, Keith Ross & Graham White
- 187 An evaluation of the preparation of canvas paintings using stress measurements Gustav A. Berger & William H. Russell
- 205 Etude de la corrosion de bronzes archéologiques du Fort-Harrouard: altération externe et mécanisme d'altération stratifiée Luc Robbiola, Inocencia Queixalos, Loïc-Pierre Hurtel, Michel Pernot & Claude Volfovsky

Volume 34 No. 1 (February 1989)

- 1 The reconstruction of papyrus manufacture: a preliminary investigation A. Wallert
- 9 The chemistry of ketone resins and the synthesis of a derivative with increased stability and flexibility E. René de la Rie & Alexander M. Shedrinsky
- 20 A reassessment of the formation of the patina called scialbatura L. Lazzarini & O. Salvadori
- 27 Essai sur les techniques conjuguées en géosciences appliquées à la sauvegard des grottes ornées Jean Vouvé
- 38 Non-destructive analysis of organic pigments and dyes using Raman microprobe, microfluorometer or absorption micro-spectrophotometer Bernard Guineau
- 45 The occurrence of sampleite, a complex copper phosphate, as a corrosion product on copper alloy objects from Memphis, Egypt Maria Fabrizi, Helen Ganiaris, Stephen Tarling & David A. Scott

Volume 34 No. 2 (May 1989)

- 53 Bramante in Milan: the Cascina Pozzobonelli. Technical examination and restoration G. Alessandrini, R. Bonecchi, R. Bugini, E. Fedeli, S. Ponticelli, G. Rossi & L. Toniolo
- 67 In-plane deformation of films of size on paintings in the glass transition region Adam Karpowicz
- 75 A removable conductive coating for scanning electron microscopy Allan A. Mills
- 80 Inert atmosphere fumigation of museum objects Mark Gilberg
- 85 The fading of artists' colorants by exposure to atmospheric nitrogen dioxide Paul M. Whitmore & Glen R. Cass

Volume 34 No. 3 (August 1989)

- 101 The conservation of bog bodies by freeze-drying S. Omar, M. McCord & V. Daniels
- 110 The glass transition of materials used in conservation Michael R. Schilling

- 117 Conversion of azurite into tenorite Daniel Gutscher, Bruno Mühlethaler, Armin Portmann & Armin Reller
- 123 Résultats de recherches expérimentales sur le blanchiment du papier Anne Liénardy & Philippe Van Damme
- 137 Stabilized dammar picture varnish E. René de la Rie & Christopher W. McGlinchey
- 147 A technical note on the casting of unsupported polymeric films Eric F. Hansen & Amy G. Taketomo

Volume 34 No. 4 (November 1989)

- 153 The stability of the tomb of Nefertari 1904-1987 K.M. Wilson-Yang & George Burns
- 171 Metal threads made of proteinaceous substrates examined by scanning electron microscopy-energy dispersive X-ray spectrometry N. Indictor, R.J. Koestler, M. Wypyski & A.E. Wardwell
- 183 Detection of ovalbumin in paint media by immunofluorescence L. Kockaert, P. Gausset & M. Dubi-Rucquoy
- 189 The coccid insect dyes: HPLC and computerized diode-array analysis of dyed yarns Jan Wouters & André Verhecken
- 201 The sulfation of marble and the treatment of gypsum crusts K. Lal Gauri, Ahad N. Chowdhury, Niraj P. Kulshreshtha & Adinarayana R. Punuru
- 207 Imaging the design on corroded mediaeval window glass by beta-backscattering radiography Barry Knight

Volume 35 No. 1 (February 1990)

- 1 More unconventional treatments for unconventional art Gustav A. Berger
- 15 Reconversion of altered lead pigments in alpine mural paintings M. Koller, H. Leitner & H. Paschinger
- 21 Studies and developments concerning the problem of altered lead pigments in wall painting S. Giovanni, M. Matteini & A. Moles
- 26 Residual solvents in wood-consolidant composites Shawn M. Carlson & Arno P. Schniewind
- 33 Analysis of aged paint binders by FTIR spectroscopy Raymond J. Meilunas, James G. Bentsen & Arthur Steinberg

Volume 35 No. 2 (May 1990)

- 53 An introduction to plastics and rubbers in collections Sharon Blank
- 64 Multiple-source holography for artwork erosion measurements P. Carelli, D. Paoletti & G. Schirripa Spagnolo
- 69 Technical and aesthetic considerations in the conservation of ancient ceramic and terracotta objects in The J.Paul Getty Museum: five case studies Maya Elston
- 81 Green copper pigments of old Russian frescoes M.M. Naumova, S.A. Pisareva & G.O. Nechiporenko
- 89 The identification of haematite as a red colorant on an Egyptian textile from the second millenium B.C. Jan Wouters, Luc Maes & Renate Germer

- 93 Early experiments in pigment analysis Stephen G. Rees-Jones
- 102 Studies on Taj Mahal plasters M. Aslam
- 107 A light-box apparatus for the repair of glass Jonathan Thornton

Volume 35 No. 3 (August 1990)

- 113 A scanning device for infrared reflectography D. Bertani, M. Cetica, P. Poggi, G. Puccioni, E. Buzzegoli, D. Kunzelman & S. Cecchi
- 117 Les deux variétés de jaune de plomb et d'étain: étude chronologique Elisabeth Martin & Alain R. Duval
- 137 A rapid method to demonstrate and evaluate microbial activity on decaying sandstone Thomas Warscheid, Karin Petersen & Wolfgang E. Krumbein
- 148 Mineralogical changes arising from the use of aqueous sodium carbonate solutions for the treatment of archaeological copper objects A.M. Pollard, R.G. Thomas & P.A. Williams
- 153 Human saliva as a cleaning agent for dirty surfaces Paula M.S. Romão, Adília M. Alarcão & César A.N. Viana
- 156 Maya blue: its presence in Cuban colonial wall paintings Alberto A. Tagle, Hubert Paschinger, Helmut Richard & Guillermo Infante
- 160 A new multi-purpose clamping table for the treatment of paintings on wood A.M. Reeve

Volume 35 No. 4 (November 1990)

- 173 Non-destructive evaluation of hull and stored timbers from the Tudor ship Mary Rose R. Mouzouras, A.M. Jones, E.B.G. Jones & M.H. Rule
- 189 Identification des matériaux synthétiques dans les peintures modernes. I. Vernis et liants polymères Naoko Sonoda & Jean-Paul Rioux
- 205 Decay and conservation of Pińczów porous limestone. I. Lithology and weathering R. Kozłowski, J. Magiera, J. Weber & J. Haber
- 222 Microbial control by low oxygen and low relative humidity environment Nieves Valentin, Mary Lidstrom & Frank Preusser

Volume 36 No. 1 (February 1991)

- 1 The prediction of the long-term photo-aging of soluble polyamides used in conservation Dominique Fromageot & Jacques Lemaire
- 9 Effect of selected coatings on moisture sorption of selected wood test panels with regard to common panel painting supports J.A. Brewer
- 24 Age and composition of oxalate-rich crusts in the Northern Territory, Australia A.L. Watchman
- 33 Le déchloruration des alliages cuivreux par électrolyse à faible polarisation dans le sesquicarbonate de sodium Silvia Païn, Regis Bertholon & Noel Lacoudre
- 44 The thermal aging of parylene and the effect of antioxidant D.W. Grattan & M. Bilz

- 53 Pore structure and the disruptive or cementing effect of salt crystallization in various types of stone
R. Rossi-Manaresi & A. Tucci

Volume 36 No. 2 (May 1991)

- 65 Technical examination of some gold wire from pre-Hispanic South America David A. Scott
- 76 Microstructure d'une plaque d'émail peint de Limoges du XVIe siècle Monique Perez y Jorba,
Monique Rommeluere & Claude Bahezre
- 85 Long-term storage of wheat starch paste Bruce F. Miller & William Root
- 93 The effects of low oxygen atmospheres on museum pests Mark Gilberg
- 99 Characterization of stone from the Metropolitan Cathedral and from the facade of the National Museum at Tepotzotlán, Mexico Gloria Ma. Martinez & Enrico N. Martinez
- 111 Evaluation of earthquake damage mitigation methods for museum objects Mihran S. Agbabian,
William S. Ginell, Sami F. Masri & Robert L. Nigbor

Volume 36 No. 3 (August 1991)

- 129 Removal of air pollutant mixtures from museum display cases Daniel Grosjean & Sucha S. Parmar
- 142 Gypsum mortars from a twelfth-century church in WiŹica, Poland Tadeusz Kawiak
- 151 The changed appearance of oil paintings due to increased transparency Stephen Rees Jones
- 155 Effet de la désacidification sur l'encre ferro-gallique Anne Liénardy & Philippe Van Damme
- 161 Hydrogen plasma reactions in a d.c. mode for the conservation of iron meteorites and antiquities
Anker Sjøgren & Vagn F. Buchwald
- 172 'Royac' viscose primed canvas – an important development? Lynne Brown
- 175 The mineral darapskite in the efflorescence on two Dutch churches M.H.P.C. Holtkamp & W.M.M. Heijnen

Volume 36 No. 4 (November 1991)

- 193 Reconstruction of a carved and painted eighteenth-century room by suspension from a metal lattice framework Timos Tsoukalas & Irene Psycha
- 203 Evaluation of the stability, appearance and performance of resins for the adhesion of flaking paint on ethnographic objects David Horton-James, Sue Walston & Steve Zounis
- 222 Identification of corrosion products on non-ferrous metal artifacts recovered from shipwrecks Ian Donald MacLeod
- 235 The presence of antimony in some grey colours of three paintings by Correggio M. Ferretti, G. Guidi,
P. Moioli, R. Scafè & C. Seccaroni
- 240 Metal thread with animal-hair core Irene Skals
- 243 The use of a commercial pheromone trap for monitoring Lasioderma serriocorne (F.) infestations in museum collections Mark Gilberg & Alex Roach

Volume 37 No. 1 (February 1992)

- 1 Monitoring colour changes in textiles on display Bruce L. Ford
- 12 Safer solubility Andrew Thorn
- 22 Amino acid analysis of proteinaceous media from Cosimo Tura's 'The Annunciation with Saint Francis and Saint Louis of Toulouse' Susana M. Halpine
- 39 A note on the thin-layer chromatography of media in paintings Jindřich Tomek & Dorothea Pechová
- 42 A note on the use of false-color infrared photography in conservation Thomas Moon, Michael R. Schilling & Sally Thirkettle
- 53 Wool and reduced sulphur gases in museum air Peter Brimblecombe, David Shooter & Ajit Kaur

Volume 37 No. 2 (May 1992)

- 73 Investigation of paint media by differential scanning calorimetry (DSC) A. Burmester
- 82 Contribution à l'étude des préparations blanches des tableaux italiens sur bois Elisabeth Martin, Naoko Sonoda & Alain R. Duval
- 93 Study and consolidation of sandstone: Temple of Karnak, Luxor, Egypt Saleh A. Saleh, Fatma M. Helmi, Monir M. Kamal & Abdel-Fattah E. El-Banna
- 105 Simulation of the degradation of coupled stones by artificial acid rain S.J. Haneef, C. Dickinson, J.B. Johnson, G.E. Thompson & G.C. Wood
- 113 Degradation of cellulose nitrate adhesive Y. Shashoua, S.M. Bradley & V.D. Daniels
- 120 Evaluation of system performance of near-infrared imaging devices Elizabeth Walmsley, Colin Fletcher & John Delaney
- 132 The identification of aerinite as a blue pigment in the Romanesque frescoes of the Pyrenean region Antoni Palet Casas & Jaime de Andrés Llopis

Volume 37 No. 3 (August 1992)

- 145 A purple barium copper silicate pigment from early China Elisabeth West FitzHugh & Lynda A. Zycherman
- 155 Changes in gloss of marble surfaces as a result of methyl cellulose poulticing Julie A. Lauffenburger, Carol A. Grissom & A. Elena Charola
- 165 Changes in the surface characteristics of artificially aged mastic varnishes after cleaning using alkaline reagents Aviva Burnstock & Tom Learner
- 185 De l'usage des minéraux de manganèse par les artistes de la grotte préhistorique de Lascaux, sud-ouest de la France Jean Vouvé, Jacques Brunet & Frédérique Vouvé
- 193 Decay and treatment of Macael white marble M.A. Bello, L. Martin & A. Martin
- 201 Exposure of artists' colorants to airborne formaldehyde Edwin L. Williams, Eric Grosjean & Daniel Grosjean

Volume 37 No. 4 (November 1992)

- 217 Physicochemical aspects of the deliquescence of calcium nitrate and its implications for wall painting conservation F. Piqué, L. Dei & E. Ferroni
- 228 Rates of deterioration of Portland limestone in an urban environment Timothy P. Cooper, Paul F. O'Brien & David W. Jeffrey
- 239 Les préparations colorées de tableaux de l'Ecole Française des dix-septième et dix-huitième siècles Alain R. Duval
- 259 Polishing treatments on ivory materials in the National Museum in Ravenna E. Cristoferi & C. Fiori
- 267 The rate of absorption of oxygen by Ageless™: the utility of an oxygen scavenger in sealed cases Frank L. Lambert, Vinod Daniel & Frank D. Preusser
- 275 A note on some alternatives to ethylene glycol ethers Christopher W. McGlinchey

Volume 38 No. 1 (February 1993)

- 3 The tin-mercury mirror: its manufacturing technique and deterioration processes Per Hadsund
- 17 Influence du type de châssis sur le vieillissement mécanique d'une peinture sur toile A. Roche
- 25 Chemical analysis of thin black layers on building stone Anders G. Nord & Tore Ericsson
- 36 Direct analysis of wood preservatives in ancient oak from the Mary Rose by laser microprobe mass spectrometry R.W. Finney & A.M. Jones
- 45 Comparisons of preservation treatments of collagen using the collagenase-SDS-PAGE technique Michael D. Stroz, Robert H. Glew, Stephen L. Williams & Asish K. Saha
- 55 An unusual efflorescence on Greek ceramics George Segan Wheeler & Mark T. Wypyski
- 63 A note on the crystal growth on the surface of a wax artifact C. Harley

Volume 38 No. 2 (May 1993)

- 73 The fading of artists' colorants by exposure to atmospheric nitric acid Lynn G. Salmon & Glen R. Cass
- 92 A note on an improved procedure for the rapid assembly of infrared reflectogram mosaics Rachel Billinge, John Cupitt, Nicolaos Dessipris & David Saunders
- 99 Identification des matériaux synthétiques dans les peintures modernes. II. Pigments organiques et matière picturale Naoko Sonoda, Jean-Paul Rioux & Alain René Duval
- 128 The effects of low oxygen atmospheres on the powderpost beetle, Lyctus brunneus (Stephens) Mark Gilberg & Alex Roach
- 133 A note on spionkopite as a corrosion product on a marine copper find Anders G. Nord, Karin Lindahl & Kate Tronner

Volume 38 No. 3 (August 1993)

- 145 Towards improved infrared reflectograms A. Burmester & F. Bayerer
- 155 A study of some Californian Indian rock art pigments David A. Scott & William D. Hyder

- 174 A note on the transfer of light into and out of paintings Stephen Rees Jones
- 180 Metal corrosion rates in aqueous treatments for waterlogged wood-metal composites L.S. Selwyn, D.A. Rennie-Bissaillon & N.E. Binnie
- 198 Controlling the aeolian erosion of the Great Sphinx Dario Camuffo
- 206 Etude de la détérioration d'une plaque d'émail peint de Limoges Monique Perez y Jorba, Monique Rommeluere & Léo Mazerolles

Volume 38 No. 4 (November 1993)

- 221 The deterioration and conservation of chocolate from museum collections Helen Cox
- 224 Damage to frescoes caused by sulphate-bearing salts: where does the sulphur come from? H. Rösch & H.J. Schwarz
- 231 The materials of J.M.W. Turner: pigments Joyce H. Townsend
- 255 Caracterisation de quelques résines utilisées en Egypte ancienne C. Vieillescazes & S. Coen
- 265 Visual effects of selected biocides on easel painting materials R.J. Koestler, E. Parreira, E.D. Santoro & P. Noble
- 274 *The wharf-borer Nacerdes melanura L., a threat to stored archaeological timbers* A.J. Pitman, A.M. Jones & E.B. Gareth Jones

Volume 39 No. 1 (February 1994)

- 3 The roles of various components of resin soaps, bile acid soaps and gels, and their effects on oil paint films David Erhardt & Judith J. Bischoff
- 28 Characterization of a waterlogged charred wood and development of a conservation treatment Chris Caple & Will Murray
- 39 Sodium tripolyphosphate – a safe sequestering agent for the treatment of excavated copper objects V.C. Sharma & B.V. Kharbade
- 45 Effect of light on the properties of silk fabrics coated with parylene-C Bonnie G. Halvorson & Nancy Kerr
- 57 Rock art pigments from Kimberley region of Western Australia: identification of the minerals and conversion mechanisms Bruce Ford, Ian MacLeod & Phil Haydock

Volume 39 No. 2 (May 1994)

- 73 Interaction between canvas and paint film in response to environmental changes Gustav A. Berger & William H. Russell
- 87 A study of the materials in the mural paintings at the 'Corral del Carbón' in Granada, Spain L.F. Capitan-Vallvey, E. Manzano & V.J. Medina Florez
- 100 The conservation of lead communion tokens by potentiostatic reduction I.A. Carradice & S.A. Campbell
- 107 Protein determination in polychromed stone sculptures, stuccoes and gesso grounds Francesca Ronca

- 121 Migration de l'eau dans les roches sous microondes en vue du dessalement des pierres de tailles Valerie Minder-Heng, André-Jean Berteaud & Veronique Verges-Belmin
- 132 The mineralization of fibres in burial environments R.D. Gillard, S.M. Hardman, R.G. Thomas & D.E. Watkinson

Volume 39 No. 3 (August 1994)

- 145 The materials and techniques of J.M.W. Turner: primings and supports Joyce H. Townsend
- 154 The conservation of a Burmese dry lacquer statue of Buddha Frank Minney
- 161 Vandalism of rock art for enhanced photography S.D. Chaffee, M. Hyman & M.W. Rowe
- 169 Leakage prediction for buildings, cases, bags and bottles Stefan Michalski
- 187 The detection of dyes by FTIR microscopy R.D. Gillard, S.M. Hardman, R.G. Thomas & D.E. Watkinson
- 193 The application of PEG 4000 for the preservation of palaeolithic wooden artifacts Anna Jover
- 199 A study of the sulphation of silane-treated sandstone and limestone in a sulphur dioxide atmosphere Pernilla Elfving, Lars-Gunnar Johansson & Oliver Lindqvist
- 210 Ageless oxygen absorber: chemical and physical properties David W. Grattan & Mark Gilberg

Volume 39 No. 4 (November 1994)

- 217 Improved visualization of underdrawings with solid-state detectors operating in the infrared Elizabeth Walmsley, Catherine Metzger, John K. Delaney & Colin Fletcher
- 232 Optimisation d'un traitement de déchloruration d'objets ferreux par plasma d'hydrogène P. Arnould-Pernot, C. Forrières, H. Michel & B. Weber
- 241 Artificial paint or patins on the sandstone of the Ramos Gate at the Catedral Nueva in Salamanca (Spain) M.T. Martin-Patino, E. Parra, M.D. Gayo, F. Madruga & J. Saavedra
- 250 Silicone rubber staining of terracotta surfaces Jeffrey P. Maish
- 257 A decorated Chinese dagger: evidence for ancient amalgam tinning Alexander Kossolapov & John Twilley
- 265 A note on the movement of moisture between the components in a sealed package Kenzo Toishi & Tokiko Gotoh
- 272 A note on the pigments and media in some Spanish Colonial paintings from Argentina Alicia Marta Seldes
- 277 A note on the use of blue and green copper compounds in paintings M.M. Naumova & S.A. Pisareva

Volume 40 No. 1 (February 1995)

- 1 The disassembly and reassembly of an Egyptian limestone sculpture Kathleen M. Garland & Joe C. Rogers
- 10 Stabilisation de moteurs d'avions immergés Christian Degrigny

- 19 Microbial taphonomy of archaeological bone A.M. Child
- 31 Identification by Raman microscopy and visible reflectance spectroscopy of pigments on an Icelandic manuscript Stephen P. Best, Robin J.H. Clark, Marcus A.M. Daniels, Cheryl A. Porter & Robert Withnall
- 41 Nuclear magnetic resonance imaging of waterlogged wood D.J. Hamilton-Cole, B. Kaye, J.A. Chudek & G. Hunter
- 51 The natural and accelerated aging of an acrylic artists' medium Paul M. Whitmore & Val G. Colalucca
- 65 A note on the analysis of the binding medium from a Phoenician shipwreck Jens Glastrup

Volume 40 No. 2 (May 1995)

- 73 The conservation of a polychrome Egyptian coffin Colin Johnson, Kerry Head & Lorna Green
- 82 The control of algal biodeterioration of a marble petroglyph site Gregory S. Young & Ian N.M. Wainwright
- 93 Thin-layer chromatographic and hydrolysis methods for the identification of plant gums in art objects K.V. Kharbade & G.P. Joshi
- 103 Examination of museum objects by means of video holography Pierre M. Boone & Vladimir B. Markov
- 110 Zinc dust treatment – an effective method for the control of bronze disease on excavated objects V.C. Sharma, Uma Shankar Lal & M.V. Nair
- 120 Acides amines et acides gras sur un même chromatogramme – un autre regard sur l'analyse des liants en peinture Witold Nowik
- 127 The potential of portable TV holography for examining frescoes in situ D. Paoletti & G. Schirripa Spagnolo
- 133 An occurrence of pararealgar as an original or altered artists' pigment M.-C. Corbeil & K. Helwig
- 139 A note on the use of alkaline dithionite for treating ancient bronze artifacts Georgia L. Fox

Volume 40 No. 3 (August 1995)

- 145 Testing materials for use in the storage and display of antiquities – a revised methodology L.R. Green & D. Thickett
- 153 Ultra-microanalysis of organic pigments on painted objects by total reflection X-ray fluorescence analysis W. Devos, L. Moens, A. Von Bohlen & R. Klockenkämper
- 163 A comparison of methods for the measurement of microbial activity on stone Sally Tayler & Eric May
- 171 Stone reinforcement by calcite crystal precipitation induced by organic matrix macromolecules P. Tiano
- 177 Unusual pigments on a Greek marble basin Arie Wallert
- 189 A note on the conservation of a thousand year old boat Zhang Lan

194 A note on the characterization of paint layers by transmission electron microscopy Carlos Barba, Margarita San Andrés, Javier Peinado, María Isabel Báez & Juan Luis Baldonado

201 A note on the artists' pigment aureolin Glenn Gates

Volume 40 No. 4 (November 1995)

217 The conservation of amber David Thickett, Pippa Cruickshank & Clare Ward

227 Nettoyage et stabilisation de surfaces métalliques peintes: application à la restauration d'une voiture autochenille C. Degriigny, O. Morel, J. Morvan, J.M. Maire & S. Boucard

237 Study of the microclimate of the Hall of the Giants in the Carrara Palace in Padua Dario Camuffo & Adriana Bernardi

250 A study of the corrosion products on sixteenth- and seventeenth-century armour from the Ravenna National Museum V. Biasini & E. Cristoferi

257 The corrosion, conservation and analysis of a lead and cannel coal necklace from the Early Bronze Age Mary Davis, Fraser Hunter & Alec Livingstone

265 The investigation of the dissolution of a marble petroglyph site by acidic precipitation Marilyn E. Laver & Ian N.M. Wainwright

274 The removal of chloride ions from artificially corroded bronze plates Maciej Uminski & Viviana Guidetti

Volume 41 No. 1 (1996)

1 Studies of patinas and decay mechanisms leading to the restoration of Santa Maria de Montblanc (Catalonia, Spain) M. Garcia-Vallés, F. Blazquez, J. Molera & M. Vendrell-Saz

9 Aging effects on ammonium carbonate/acetone solutions and cleaning of works of art L. Dei, P. Baglioni, G. Sarti & E. Ferroni

19 Adhesive testing at the Canadian Conservation Institute – an evaluation of selected poly(vinyl acetate) and acrylic adhesives Jane L. Down, Maureen A. MacDonald, Jean Tétreault & R. Scott Williams

45 Pressure-sensitive adhesives for the attachment of reinforcing canvases to the back of paintings Alain Roche

55 Cracking of organosilicone stone consolidants in gel form Jiř Brus & Petr Kotlík

60 A note on the metallographic preparation of ancient lead David A. Scott

Volume 41 No. 2 (1996)

65 The role of the conidia of fungi in fox spots Mary-Lou E. Florian

76 An improved dye and lake pigment analysis method for high-performance liquid chromatography and diode-array detector Susana M. Halpine

95 Approche d'étude des encres anciennes Jean Bleton, Claude Couprie & Jean Sansoulet

109 Consolidation of stone by mixtures of alkoxysilane and acrylic polymer Jiř Brus & Petr Kotlík

- 120 A note on a traditional technique of varnish application for paintings on panel Joan Marie Reifsnnyder

Volume 41 No. 3 (1996)

- 129 Fastness to light and washing of direct dyes for cellulosic textiles Brigitte Oger
- 136 Non-destructive spectroscopic detection of cobalt(II) in paintings and glass Mauro Bacci & Marcello Picollo
- 145 Investigation and treatment of the portal of the San Telmo Palace in Seville G.G. Terreros & M. Acalde
- 153 Removal and analysis of soluble salts from ancient tiles J. Costa Pessoa, J.L. Farinha Antunes, M.O. Figueiredo & M.A. Fortes
- 161 Conservation of a French pistol from the wreck of Le Cygne (1808) Paul Mardikian & René David
- 170 Altération et nettoyage de pièces en argent doré C. Degrigny, M. Wéry, V. Vescoli & J.M. Blengino
- 179 Conservation of a Late Minoan basket from Crete Antonio Paterakis
- 183 A dynamic system for removing oxygen from air using an electrochemical cell Mark Gilberg & David W. Grattan

Volume 41 No. 4 (1996)

- 193 A black paint on the facade of a Renaissance building in Bergamo, Italy Giovanna Alessandrini, Lucia Toniolo, Franco Cariati, Grazia Daminelli, Stefano Polesello, Andrea Pozzi & Anna Maria Salvi
- 205 Outdoor bronze statues: analysis of metal and surface samples L.S. Selwyn, N.E. Binnie, J. Poitras, M.E. Laver & D.A. Downham
- 229 The application of vapour-permeable synthetic membranes to the climatic stabilization of museum showcases Carlo Isetti, Anna Magrini & Enrico Nannei
- 241 The conservation of a group of waterlogged neolithic bark bowls Clare Ward, Derrick Giles, Dean Sully & David John Lee
- 250 A note on the origin of turbidity in films of an artists' acrylic paint medium Paul M. Whitmore, Val G. Colaluca & Eugene Farrell

Volume 42 No. 1 (1997)

- 1 Problems with coated silver: whisker formation and possible filiform corrosion Catherine Sease, Lyndsie S. Selwyn, Susana Zubiato, David F. Bowers & David E. Atkins
- 11 A note on the poultice cleaning of feathers using Laponite RD gel Luciana da Silveira
- 17 Deterioration of sugar artifacts V. Daniels & G. Lohneis
- 27 Chemical and physical properties of old silk fabrics Mary A. Becker, Yoshiko Magoshi, Tetsuya Sakai & Noreen C. Tuross
- 38 A note on the use of silicone rubber facings in the reassembly of archaeological painted plasters Stefano Pulga

- 43 New autogenous lime-based grouts used in the conservation of lime-based wall paintings P. Baglioni, L. Dei, F. Piqué, G. Sarti & E. Ferroni
- 55 The preservation of Denizli limestones by in situ polymerization Belma İbik-Yürüksoy & Olgun Güven

Volume 42 No. 2 (1997)

- 65 Analysis of the paints on a selection of Naskapi artifacts in ethnographic collections Elizabeth A. Moffatt, P. Jane Sirois & Judi Miller
- 74 The conservation of a fossil tree trunk Per Hoffmann & Robert A. Blanchette
- 83 Identification of pigments in a fourteenth-century miniature by combined micro-Raman and PIXE spectroscopic techniques Laura Bussotti, Maria Pia Carboncini, Emilio Castellucci, Lorenzo Giuntini & Pier Andrea Mandò
- 93 Copper compounds in metals and colorants: oxides and hydroxides David A. Scott
- 101 The flight of Brancusi birds: de-installation and packing of two marble sculptures Beata Tworek-Matuszkiewicz
- 107 Whistler's views on the restoration and display of his paintings Joyce Hill Stoner
- 115 Acoustic emission monitoring to study sodium sulphate crystallization in monumental porous carbonate stones C.M. Grossi, R.M. Esbert, L.M. Suárez del Río, M. Montoto & M. Laurenzi-Tabasso

Volume 42 No. 3 (1997)

- 129 The description of craquelure patterns Spike Bucklow
- 141 Determination of concentrations of acetic acid emitted from wood coatings in enclosures Jean Tétreault & Eugénie Stamatopoulou
- 157 Conservation treatments of paintings on ceramic and glass: two case studies Niccolo Caldararo
- 165 Efficiency des méthodologies géoscientifiques indirectes dans la caractérisation des désordres structurels d'un monument monolithique souterrain et mesures conservatoires associées Jean Vouvé, Philippe Malaurent & Frédérique Vouvé
- 176 Barstowite as a corrosion product on a lead object from the Mahdia shipwreck Hartmut Kutzke, Bruno Barbier, Petra Becker & Gerhard Eggert
- 181 A note on burnt yellow earth pigments: documentary sources and scientific analysis Kate Helwig

Volume 42 No. 4 (1997)

- 193 The cathedral of Bari, Italy: evaluation of environmental effects on stone decay phenomena K. Torfs, R. Van Grieken, F. Zezza, N. Garcia & F. Macri
- 207 *Laboratory evaluation of an insect growth regulator, fenoxycarb, for the control of Tineola bisselliella (Hum.) in museum collections* Mark Gilberg & Alex Roach
- 211 Moire fringe analysis of cradled panel paintings Al Brewer & Colin Forno
- 231 Princes of the House of Timur: conservation and examination of an early Mughal painting L.R. Lee, A. Thompson & V.D. Daniels

241 The application of a non-destructive XRF method to identify different alloys in the bronze statue of the Capitoline Horse Marco Ferretti, Lucia Miazzo & Pietro Moioli

247 Rentokil Bubble in nitrogen anoxia treatment of museum pests Kerstin Elert & Shin Maekawa

Volume 43 No. 1 (1998)

1 The social and historic construction of professional values in conservation Miriam Clavir

9 Fourier transform-Raman spectroscopy of ivory: a non-destructive diagnostic technique Howell G.M. Edwards, Dennis W. Farwell, Jacci M. Holder & Emma E. Laeson

17 Studies of lead corrosion in acetic acid environments Jean Tetreault, Jane Sirois & Eugenie Stamatopoulou

33 Characterization of proteinaceous binders in wall painting samples by microwave-assisted acid hydrolysis and GC-MS determination of amino acids M.P. Colombini, R. Fuoco, A. Giacomelli & B. Muscatello

42 Impregnation under low pressure Petr Kotlik

49 The iron in black weathering crusts on Saxonian sandstones investigated by Mossbauer spectroscopy Walter Eberhard Steger & Hartmut Mehner

Volume 43 No. 2 (1998)

65 Thermodynamic characterization of skin, hide and similar materials composed of fibrous collagen Gregory S. Young

80 Green degradation products of azurite in wall paintings: identification and conservation treatment Luigi Dei, Andreas Ahle, Piero Baglioni, Daniela Dini & Enzo Ferroni

89 Cleaning of daguerreotypes with an excimer laser I. Turovets, M. Maggen & A. Lewis

101 The 'Portail de la Mere Dieu' of Amiens cathedral: its polychromy and conservation Christopher Weeks

109 A note on the characterization of metal threads in historic textiles handed down by the Ainu people Natsuko Kohara, Yoshihiko Sasa, Kiyohiko Sakurai & M. Uda

114 Original written sources for the history of mediaeval painting techniques and materials: a list of published texts Salvador Munoz Vinas

Volume 43 No. 3 (1998)

129 A history of conservation Harold J. Plenderleith

144 A provisional bibliography of Harold James Plenderleith Andrew Oddy & Peter Winsor

150 Gas-chromatography/mass-spectrometry of works of art: characterization of binding media in post-Byzantine icons A. Casoli, G. Palla & J. Tavlaridis

159 GC-MS and SEM studies on the effects of solvent cleaning on old master paintings from the National Gallery, London Raymond White & Ashok Roy

- 177 Moche wallpainting pigments from La Mina, Jequetepeque, Peru David A. Scott, Douglas H. Doughty & Christopher B. Donnan
- 183 Electrochemical tests as alternatives to current methods for assessing effects of exhibition materials on metal artifacts Chandra L. Reedy, Richard A. Corbett & Martin Burke

Volume 43 No. 4 (1998)

- 201 Gilded stuccoes of the Italian baroque L. Toniolo, C. Colombo, S. Bruni, P. Fermo, A. Casoli. G. Palla & C.L. Bianchi
- 209 Radiocarbon dating of canvas paintings: two case studies Mark J.Y. Van Strydonck, Liliane Masschelein-Kleiner, Cees Alderliesten & Arie F.M. de Jong
- 215 Application of nuclear magnetic resonance spectroscopy to the analysis of organic archaeological materials E.L. Ghisalberti & I.M. Godfrey
- 231 The conservation of wet collodion positives Susie Clark
- 242 Epoxy resin-consolidated stone: appearance change on aging William S. Ginell & Richard Coffman
- 249 Comparative chromatographic and mass-spectrometric studies of triterpenoid varnishes: fresh material and aged samples from paintings Gisela A. van der Doelen, Klaas Jan van den Berg & Jaap J. Boon
- 265 A note on the use of tin amalgams in marquetry M.-C. Corbeil

Volume 44 No. 1 (1999)

- 1 Environmental deterioration of stone monuments of Bhubaneswar, the temple city of India J.S. Bhargav, R.C. Mishra & C.R. Das
- 12 A note on the effect of multiple freeze-thaw treatment on natural fibre fabrics Elizabeth E. Peacock
- 19 Evaluation of the phase inversion process as an application method for synthetic polymers in conservation work M.T. Domenech-Carbo & E. Aura-Castro
- 29 The use of temporary facings in lining a fragmentary ancient Egyptian shroud Pippa Cruickshank, Helen Morgan & Yvonne Shashoua
- 39 Image spectroscopy mapping technique for non-invasive analysis of paintings Andrea Casini, Franco Lotti, Marcello Picollo, Lorenzo Stefani & Ezio Buzzegoli
- 49 Testing Hostacor IT as a corrosion inhibitor for iron in polyethylene glycol solutions V. Argyropoulos, J.-J. Rameau, F. Dalard & C. Degrigny
- 58 Ancient pastes for stone protection against environmental agents J. Martin-Gil, M.C. Ramos-Sanchez & F.J. Martin-Gil
- 63 Scientific research and conservation treatment on the Yang Sui excavated from Zhou Yuan ruins Yang Jun Chang
- 67 Enhanced pest capture rates using pheromone-baited sticky traps in museum stores P.R. Ackery, D.B. Pinniger & J. Chambers

Volume 44 No. 2 (1999)

- 73 Factors affecting the deterioration of the cellulosic fibres in black dyed New Zealand flax (Phormium tenax) Vincent Daniels
- 86 A variant Oddy test procedure for evaluating materials used in storage and display cases Joseph A. Bamberger, Ellen G. Howe & George Wheeler
- 91 The nature of a whewellite-rich rock crust associated with pictographs in southwestern Texas Jon Russ, Warne D. Kaluarachchi, Louise Drummond and Howell G.M. Edwards
- 104 Preliminary evaluation of compressed air membrane dryers for exhibit case desiccation Jeff Maish, Shin Maekawa & Kerstin Elert
- 113 Evaluation over time of an ethyl silicate consolidant applied to ancient lime plaster Carol A. Grissom, A. Elena Charola, Ann Boulton & Marion F. Mecklenburg
- 121 A corrosion inhibitor test for copper-based artifacts Robert B. Faltermeier
- 129 Biaxial tensile testing of paintings on canvas Christina R.T. Young & Roger D. Hibberd

Volume 44 No. 3 (1999)

- 145 Limewater absorption and calcite crystal formation on a limewater-impregnated secco wall painting Isabelle Brajer & Nicoline Kalsbeek
- 157 Conservation of ancient lead artifacts corroded in organic acid environments: electrolytic stabilization/consolidation C. Degryny & R. Le Gall
- 170 A comparative study of the composition and corrosion of branches from Eastern Han dynasty money trees Karen Trentelman, Leon Stodulski, Ray Lints & Chongmin Kim
- 184 Data in conservation: the missing link in the process Kirsten Suenson-Taylor, Dean Sully & Clive Orton
- 195 Characterization of organic azo-pigments by pyrolysis-gas chromatography Naoko Sonoda
- 209 The conservation of artworks and hot air heating systems in churches: are they compatible? The case of Rocca Pietore, Italian Alps Dario Camuffo, Giovanni Sturaro, Antonio Valentino & Marco Camuffo

Volume 44 No. 4 (1999)

- 217 The corrosion of excavated archaeological iron with details on weeping and akaganéite L.S. Selwyn, P.J. Sirois and V. Argyropoulos
- 233 The description and classification of craquelure Spike Bucklow
- 245 Prediction of durability for outdoor exposed bronzes: estimation of the corrosivity of the atmospheric environment of the Capitoline Hill in Rome C. Bartuli, R. Cigna and O. Fumei
- 253 Atmospheric pressure chemical ionization liquid chromatography mass spectrometry and its application to conservation: analysis of triacylglycerols Nobuko Shibayama, Suzanne Quillen Lomax, Kenneth Sutherland and E. René de la Rie
- 269 Prediction of the relative humidity response of backboard-protected canvas paintings Giovanna Di Pietro and Frank Ligterink

- 278 A preliminary note on the use of enzymes in conservation: the removal of aged acrylic resin coatings with lipase Roberto Bellucci, Paolo Cremonesi and Ginevra Pignagnoli
