IIC EDINBURGH CONGRESS 2020 - ONLINE

Interested in attending the IIC 28th biennial Congress online and boosting your CV whilst supporting a global community of conservators and cultural heritage professionals?

We need some extra hands to support our digital engagement activities. We have a limited number of places available to those wishing to contribute some volunteer hours during the Congress this year.

In exchange for your help, we are happy to offer a Congress Volunteer Pass as well as free membership to IIC for one year along with opportunities to support your career and professional development. See the details below and on the Congress website HERE.

VOLUNTEER BENEFITS

Volunteers will receive a ‘Volunteer and Moderator Pass’, which is similar to full registration giving you access to the special preview, Congress sessions, networking events and virtual tours as well as covering one year of membership to IIC (or if you are already a member, we will extend your membership to 2021-22).

Volunteers receive:

• Congress Registration
• Access to all Congress sessions (once volunteer assignments are complete and as far as volunteer duties allow)
• One year of membership to IIC
• A special thank you after the event with a discount for tools and materials that you can purchase online, kindly provided by Conservation by Design (CXD International) #lovecxd
VOLUNTEER REQUIREMENTS

Congress Volunteers are required to:

- Be at least 18 years of age
- Work a minimum of 10 hours
- Attend the mandatory Volunteer Orientation Session in October (date tbc) and assist in pre-event preparation activities
- Be available during all dates of the entire Congress online, 2 – 6 November 2020
- Have a valid private email address (no shared email addresses, please)
- Be responsible for working with IIC’s DEV Coordinator / News in Conservation Editor, Sharra Grow, to solidify your volunteer assignments and schedule
- Agree to the Recording and Copyright Release (found here)
- Acknowledge and adhere to the IIC Community Guidelines, Code of Conduct and Data and Privacy Policy (found here)

VOLUNTEER ASSIGNMENT: DIGITAL ENGAGEMENT ROLE

In this role you will:

- Be a named moderator for one to two Congress sessions including the 15-minute live Q&A segment at the end of each session.
- Source and post relevant topics and comments to the discussion thread associated with each session presentations and the accompanying live Q&A, to encourage participation online and questions from Congress delegates.
- Create a post-session blog (max. 500 words) for the IIC Congress Website, highlighting and selecting best photos from the presentations to be used across IIC’s social media channels.
- Create social media posts regarding your moderated session(s), to be shared via IIC’s social media channels during and after the session(s)

HOW TO APPLY

If you are interested in volunteering, please email your CV with a cover letter detailing your interest and experience in support of the role by 20th September 2020 to DEV Coordinator Sharra Grow (IIC Editor, News in Conservation) at: news@iiiconservation.org

Deadline for Applications: 20th September 2020

A VERY SPECIAL THANK YOU

We are very grateful to our wonderful sponsors Historic Environment Scotland and CXD International, and for the unwavering support of the Getty Foundation and Tru Vue for helping us encourage wider participation globally, alongside our local organising partners for making this all possible.
